Wednesday November 23rd 10:00 am – 11:00 am Radio Training

<https://uca911.webex.com/meet/ddialogue>

- High level overview of how a trunked radio system works, with emphasis on how using interoperability training system use limiting the possibility of system busies.

- Discussion of interoperability channels w/example scenarios of how and when to use them, where they are found in the radio template

- New fleet map training – further optimization of 800 MHz radio system resources

- Q&A

Radio Training

- High level overview of how a trunked radio system works

- End user radio operation, button assignments, how to locate radio I.D., emergency activation and de-activation, general nomenclature, zone configuration
- Regional channels, moving from primary talk group to regional channel
- Taking resources away from local site (dragging traffic) ● Dispatch coordination of ops and event channels

Interoperability Exercise

- Overview of disparate radio systems in Utah
- Utah interoperability talk groups – understanding these resources and how/when to use them
- Non-Federal Interoperability Channels
- Table top exercise – Participants will use a given event scenario and be asked to develop a comms plan for each of the responding agencies.
- New Fleet Map training – understanding the new Fleet Map and its benefit
